WHAT WILL HE SAY IN OHIO ADDRESS?

Roosevelt Will Address Ohio
State Constitutional Convention

BELIEVED HE MAY THEN
DECLARE HIS ATTITUDE

Taft Continues Campaign—
Wilson Opens Campaign
Today in Illinois

COLUMBUS, Feb. 12.—Col. Roosevelt will address the Ohio Constitutional convention on February 21. He is expected to refer to politics.

MIGHT OUTLINE POLICIES IN SPEECH BEFORE CONVENTION
NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—It is reported that Theodore Roosevelt will outline the policies on which he will make the race for the presidency if nominated, when he speaks at Columbus on Feb. 21. He refuses to confirm the report.

TAFT CONTINUES CAMPAIGN INVADING NEW JERSEY
NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 12.—Leaving Washington at 8 o'clock this morning President Taft arrived here at noon and lunched with Governor Murphy. After meeting the state Republican leader, the president laid a wreath on the Lincoln statue and attended a reception at the Essex country club.

Later the president started for New York where he addresses the Republican club banquet tonight.
McKinley Optimistic
WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—"Roosevelt has done the Taft campaign much good," was the statement of Congressman Wm. B. McKinley, Taft's campaign manager. "When it becomes apparent that Roosevelt is not a candidate you will find the progressive support voluntarily going to Taft and the party will be harmonized."

WOULD BLOCK ROOSEVELT BY THIRD TERM RESOLUTION
WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Senator Reed today introduced a joint resolution declaring ineligible for the presidency anyone who has served two terms, or one term and part of a second term. The resolution proposes a constitutional amendment.

ROOSEVELT'S NOMINATION IS HOPE OF THE PROGRESSIVES
SACRAMENTO, Feb. 12.—Acting Governor Wallace declared today that Roosevelt would be the salvation of the progressive movement. He said: "I believe his candidacy will mean La Follette's withdrawal. Roosevelt is the only man who can defeat Taft for the nomination."

Explaining his reason for breaking his determination not to make speeches, Col. Roosevelt wrote the convention secretary, C. B. Galbraith, thus:

"I have declined all invitations to speak, but this appears to be an invitation to aid the representatives of a great state engaging in a great fundamental piece of governmental work in behalf of its citizenry. Under the circumstances, it is both a pleasure and a duty to accept."

"Either Roosevelt must be nominated or the Republican candidate will be defeated by Woodrow Wilson. While I have a high admiration for Wilson, I do not think progressive principles will advance under him. Democrats have never been constructionists. I don't believe they would be even with Mr. Wilson."

CLARK GETS 69 OF 75

OKLAHOMA COUNTIES
WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—The news that Speaker Clark had carried sixty-nine out of the seventy-five Oklahoma counties in the presidential primaries in that state was received by the Speaker in a telegram from Chief Justice Williams of Oklahoma.

WOODROW WILSON OPENS CAMPAIGN IN ILLINOIS
CHICAGO, Feb. 13.—Formally launching his campaign in Illinois, Woodrow Wilson spoke today before the Iroquois club. He declared the progressives as strong in the south. At luncheon Wilson said:

"My theory is that the cure of public lies lies not in the destruction of business but the destruction of abuses through minute investigation of corporation activities."

Water Soaked Field
A furrow plowed through a field that is soaked with water will aid and hurry the process of drying several days. On the bare spots scatter a generous quantity of grass seed, manure each lightly and go over the ground with a spike-tooth harrow again. Frost throws grass roots out of the ground. Get out the roller and go over the fields before they are hard and dry.

A Wedding Gift Of Rhinoceros' Tail From T. R.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—On opening a package recently containing Theodore Roosevelt's wedding gift to her, Mrs. Walter Howe, who was Miss Mary Carlisle, screamed and hurled the snaky object contained in the package through an open window. The butler rescued the object and found it was a rhinoceros tail, a rare trophy of Col. Roosevelt's famous African hunting trip. The amusing story has been suppressed until today.

ADVOCATES FREE TEXT BOOK BILL

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 12.—The Superintendent's Blue Bulletin for February is being sent out from the State superintendent's office at Sacramento to the various county superintendents. This is a budget of news, rulings, opinions, and information pertaining to the public schools of California. It is partly prepared at the state office and partly by each local superintendent before he sends it to the school officers within his own jurisdiction. It gives room for originality and enterprise on the part of county superintendents and it gives a small job for the local printer. It is a new expedient in practical supervision and it is made in California.

This February number advocates the free text book bill and explains the new attendance law. It has an amusing comment upon the high school fraternity situation, caused by the recent reaffirming of the anti-law law by the Appellate Court. It points out the fact that abolishing the poll tax would mean a serious blow to the schools of the state because this tax produces $800,000 per year for educating the children. It speaks of a novel experiment in cooperative buying of school supplies in Contra Costa County. It describes the school laws, school registers and text books that are ready for distribution.

The spirit of the bulletin is the promotion of communication among the school officers of the state.

ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG IS PLEGGED IN FAVOR OF STANTON

All the Schools of Santa Ana Hold Exercises Marking
Lincoln's Birthday

JUDGE LANGLEY
DESCRIBES SHILOH

Patriotic Music and Selections
Concerning Great President
are Used

Today, the birthday of Abraham Lincoln, the sixth President of the United States, was fittingly marked by exercises at all of the schools of the city.

In that the day is held sacred to the memory of the man after whom the school is named, Lincoln School on French street held exercises different from any of the others.

All the pupils of Lincoln school gathered in front of the building, while a new American flag—always the most beautiful of flags—was unfurled. This flag was presented to the school by the school district. With its unfurling, the entire school from the principal, W. C. Roberts, down to the smallest pupil, gave the military salute as follows:

"I pledge allegiance to my Flag and the Republic for which it stands, one Nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Musical numbers were a part of the program.
At the High School
The high school, teachers and pupils, gathered in the assembly hall. Principal Bartlett opened the exercises by reading Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation, which he characterized as probably the greatest of Lincoln's literary productions, though his inaugural address and Gettysburg address ranked as high.

Patriotic numbers were given on a graphophone, and "America" was sung by the Glee Club.
Judge E. T. Langley, a veteran of the Civil War, delivered the address. In a graphic manner he described the battle of Shiloh. None could have heard the grey-haired old soldier without having a feeling of the great love that inspired men to give their lives for their country. G. W. Wilcox, an old soldier, was on the platform with Judge Langley and his sister.

At Other Schools
Judge Langley repeated his address to the Sixth, Seventh and Eighth grades of the Jefferson School, meeting in the Eighth grade room. Music and recitations were on the program in each of the rooms of the school.

At Roosevelt, McKinley and Washington schools, exercises were held in each room at 11 o'clock, the selections exemplifying the life and work of the great war president, and the music being of a patriotic nature. The Eighth grade of the Roosevelt School listened to a lecture by Rev. W. L. Dearing, a veteran.

FAMOUS SURGEON DEAD IN LONDON

LONDON, Feb. 12.—Joseph Lister, first Baron Lister, the world-famous scientist and father of antiseptic surgery, died here yesterday, aged 85 years.

Baron Lister achieved his first distinction by his disclosures following the investigation of causes contributing to the fatality of many surgical operations which in themselves did not seem serious enough to cause death. His discovery that many deaths were due to the infection of surgical instruments led him to probably one of the greatest advances in modern materia medica—the treatment of surgical instruments by antiseptics.

Baron Lister at first used the plain carbolic acid as an antiseptic, and from this crude system were evolved the present-day methods by which blood-poisoning and its resultant fatalities have been practically eliminated.

RAILROADS ARE TO FIGHT COMMERCE COURT'S RULING

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—The transcontinental railroad attorneys here formally notified the Commerce Court that the railroads will ask a permanent injunction of the dollar lemon rate next month. They have also served warning that if this is denied they will carry the case to the Supreme Court.

Los Angeles Paper States That Dismissal of Suit Has Been Ordered

AS YET NOTHING
IS FILED HERE

Report is That State Legal Head Finds That the Con-
tentions are Groundless

According to a report in the Los Angeles Times, Anaheim has been directed by Attorney General Webb to dismiss the action brought by a taxpayer to dissolve the incorporation of the city of Stanton on the ground that it was never legally organized as a city in that the proceedings were not regular.

As yet no dismissal has been filed with County Clerk Williams. The Times' authority is evidently from a Stanton source.

Any action to dissolve a municipality must have the approval of the attorney general before it can be begun. In the case of the suit against Stanton, the approval of the attorney general was given, but at the time it was understood that it was given because the time in which could be brought was almost up, and the approval was given in order to allow the suit to be brought, the attorney general then to take time to investigate the points raised in the complaint.

The Times account says that Attorney General Webb has given a lengthy decision in which he decides against Anaheim on every point raised, and declares that Stanton is a legal municipality, and orders the dismissal of the suit. It states that only two points were considered of sufficient importance by Attorney General Webb to merit consideration. One was that the time for hearing the petition to incorporate before the Board of Supervisors, was conflicting, the day of the week not tallying with the day of the month. The later day, declared the attorney general, prevailed. The other, that the board did not sit upon the day set forth in the petition, but upon the following day. This was quickly disposed of when it was shown that the Stanton people were on hand on the day set forth, and had no control over the Board of Supervisors as to when they should meet. Further, says Attorney General Webb, the record shows that Anaheim, "its city officials, friends and sympathizers," were there in force and had their day in court, and no injustice had been done them.

The town of Stanton was formed after Anaheim's city trustees laid plans to establish a sewer farm in the Magnolia district. When the new town was formed an ordinance was passed prohibiting the maintenance of a sewer farm within the city's boundaries.

WRECK OF MAINE FLOATS AS WATER FILLS DAM

HAVANA, Feb. 12.—The wreck of the Maine floated free from the mud last night when the water was turned into the dam surrounding the wreck. The water within the dam is about 14 feet below the harbor level at low tide.

It is the intention tomorrow to admit the water more rapidly, so that by nightfall the wreck will be raised to the harbor level, leaving nothing more to be done except to break the dam and float out the ship.

Fifty Zapatistas have been hanged at various garisons. Zapata has been sentenced to hang if captured and a war of extermination has been declared on all revolutionists. It is expected that copies of the federal indictments returned by the Indianapolis grand jury will arrive here before night. It is not known yet what number of laborites now here have been indicted. The fact that the federal court was closed today will not interfere with serving the papers if they arrive.

RUSH FROM FROZEN
EAST TO THE LURE
OF SUNSHINE LAND

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 12.—That the influx of visitors from the frozen East to Sunny Southern California is unusually heavy is indicated here by the demand at hotels. So great became the call at the Hotel U. S. Grant the management erected fifty tents on the roof, letting them at the regular rates.

The tents at once became popular with the Easterners, who wrote to their friends in the East, as proof of Southern California's balminess, that they were living in tents on the roof of an eight-story building. Crowded conditions also were reported today at Coronado. There had been more calls for rooms than could be filled. With the extreme weather continuing in the East it is expected that there will be a still greater rush.

PINCHOT APPEALS TO U. S. CONGRESS
TO KILL RAKER'S BILL

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Charging that the water power trust is "exercising its enormous interests and influence" to pass the Raker (California) bill granting the trust rights in the Mono National Forest of California, Gifford Pinchot, through the National Conservation Commission, has appealed to congress to defeat the measure. The house votes on the bill tomorrow.

Pinchot said: "If the bill is passed it will provide a dangerous precedent for the giving away of public property to the interests. Raker has been flooded with telegrams from the water power interests and their allies. These concerns would not be active unless interested. The Raker bill constitutes a dangerous attack on the conservation policy and public welfare."

EMPEROR TO BE SPIRITUAL RULER

Decree Greeted all Over China
With Singing and Cheers;
Grants Rebel Demands

GEN. LEA IN COLLAPSE AFTER THE ABDICATION

PEKIN, Feb. 12.—Premier Yuan Shi Kai has issued an edict formally announcing the Manchu abdication.

The edict was withheld for a week to permit the mobilization of sufficient troops to protect the royal family from fanatic supporters who threatened death if abdication took place.

The word "abdication" was omitted, the edict stating that the throne had decided to discontinue governmental power except by confining its future efforts to spiritual matters.

Royalists have telegraphed to Dr. Sun Yet Sen that they will yet oppose the republic unless Yuan Shi Kai is President.

The imperial announcement contained three edicts. The first one announced the abdication; the second edict declares the republic acceptable to the throne, and the third edict approves all the conditions imposed by the republicans.

The last edict created a sensation as it was generally believed the throne would demand certain considerations delaying the formal establishment of the republic.

General Homer Lea of Los Angeles, Dr. Sun's chief military adviser, is seriously ill at Nanking as a result of collapse following the formal announcement of abdication.

LOS ANGELES MAN GETS CREDIT FOR SUCCESS OF REBELLION

NANKING, Feb. 12.—Homer Lea is critically ill. The populace generally credits the success of the rebellion to his military organization. Physicians are constantly attending him. Lea came to China with Dr. Sun yet Sen several weeks ago, when the latter returned here to accept the provisional presidency. His illness is due to mental strain.

Nanking is seething with excitement as the result of the abdication. The streets are filled with singing and cheering mobs. Similar reports come from every Chinese city where the telegraph reaches.

JAPAN AUGMENTS NAVY ERE CHINA IS GREAT REPUBLIC

TOKIO, Feb. 12.—A naval program, calling for the expenditure of $100,000,000 for the construction of eighteen new warships is being compiled by the Japanese government for the consideration of the diet.

The budget committee is sitting daily in its work of preparing data on public expenditures, but the bulk of attention is being given to rebuilding the army and navy.

It is understood that the Japanese statesmen have been influenced to a large extent in the determination to build up the nation's armament by the Chinese situation.

In brief they fear that, should China become a powerful republic, preparations must be made by Japan beforehand.

"No, but keep it in dark."

SELECT SEED; INCREASE CROP

Bulletin Showing How to Better Production of Lima Beans
Free on Application

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA,
Feb. 12.—That by selecting their seed the bean growers of Ventura county alone could increase their yield more than half a million dollars a year is urged by Professor George W. Shaw in a bulletin on
"The Production of Lima Beans," just published by the University, and obtainable without charge by writing to the College of Agriculture at Berkeley. Professor Shaw urges that every bean grower should select from the field, when the beans are ripe, a large number of the plants that are most heavily laden with ripe pods containing a high average of beans to the pod, that these plants should be threshed separately, that the seeds so selected should be sown in a special seed plot the succeeding season, and the seed from this seed plot used the second season for general seeding. For permanent results the grower should continue such selection yearly. The method would apply also to the improvement of other crops.

and the pepper-tree, the poplar and the rose, is set forth by Professor H. J. Quayle in a bulletin just issued by the College of Agriculture.

MOTORCYCLIST BADLY HURT

El Modenan Was Injured on North Main Street Saturday Morning

Orange News: Job Nichols of El Modena, is unconscious in the Santa Ana hospital as the result of a motorcycle accident on North Main street, Santa Ana, Saturday morning, which it is believed may prove serious.

The details are not entirely clear,
as no one was found who witnessed the accident. Nichols was discovered in the street about 7 o'clock Saturday morning. His motorcycle was still running and marks in the road
showed plainly where it had skidded.
The machine was not injured and no bruises were found upon the man's body, but he was unconscious and was still in that state at the last report. He resides with his parents,
Mr. and Mrs. John Nichols, in El Modena, and is 21 years of age.

Nichols is employed in a garage
in Santa Ana and was riding to work on a motorcycle belonging to Gus Harmon.

The second El Modena man to meet injury in a motorcycle accident
the same day was Joseph Hobson.
Mr. Hobson was riding behind his son, Joseph, on a motorcycle early Saturday afternoon. They were bound for Orange.

The machine skidded as they were
opposite the church in El Modena, and both were thrown. Mr. Hobson was rendered unconscious for a short time, but later recovered, and his physician does not believe that the accident will have any serious effects.

Build New Church
In about two weeks the oldest church building at present in Orange will be moved back to make room for a successor in the form of one of the handsomest church structures in the county. Plans for the new Presbyterian church have been accepted, and it is expected that work on the new building will actually begin in about two months.

The completed structure will be as handsome an accession to the church buildings of Orange as could be desired. It will be located on the site of the present building and will cost approximately $15,000 completed and furnished.

The present church is thirty years old, and is said to have been the second church building built in Orange.

Basketball Activity
With Earl Pine back in the game,
the Athletic Club basketball team will resume its schedule, which was cut short by the injury to the star center two weeks ago.

The team will play its next game
in Los Angeles next Monday evening, meeting the State Normal school five on the Normal court. The game will be the first that the home five has played for exactly one month, so that the going may not be easy. It is also the first game that the Orange team has played away from home in two years.

The Globe Mills five, a picked assignment from the Los Angeles Y.M.
C.A. has been secured for February 19. The game will be played on the home court and should be one worth watching, as the Los Angeles team is expected to muster a strong lineup.

The second game away from home
will be played with Whittier College at Whittier on Washington's birthday. This will probably be the hardest tryout that the new team has received, as the task of beating the premier college quintet on their own floor is a most formidable one. The Orange team expects some assistance in that respect from the accompanying rooters, as there is a prospect of a good-sized delegation from this city taking in the game. Whittier will play a return game here February 27.

Friends of the D. P. Crawford family last evening planned and carried out a delightful surprise party upon the Crawford young people and their cousin, Miss Fay Jones.

The affair was in the nature of a farewell to Miss Jones, who left this morning for her home in the East.

Games and music filled most of the evening, while light refreshments were served. As the impressive feature Miss Jones was presented with a souvenir spoon of Orange Union High School by Earl Crawford in behalf of the guests, Lou Bortz coming forward with a neat speech to fit the occasion. About fourteen guests enjoyed the party.

CONFISCATE SMALL GUNS AND DAGGERS

Riverside District Attorney Says There are Too Many Concealed Weapons

Riverside Press: District Attorney
Evans has instructed various officers of the county to confiscate all of the revolvers, daggers and other weapons
they find in the possession of anybody who has no right to carry them. He says that, although there is a strict county ordinance against carrying concealed weapons, there is entirely too much of the practice going on for the safety of the public.

Mr. Evans says there are very few respectable people that carry concealed weapons, excepting those who feel they should do so to protect themselves. He said:

"It is surprising how many foreigners in this locality constantly go armed with either a dangerous revolver or a dirk, dagger or other sort of knife. Many of the Mexicans who have little else in the way of property tote high-priced guns. When these people become involved in the smallest difficulty, caused usually through drinking, they cut and slash or shoot one another. But when they are brought into court there is usually no weapon

of any description to be located.

The safest way of preventing many of these disturbances is to prevent these men from carrying weapons of any kind, hence the county officers are advised to take guns and knives away from all such characters who are the last class that should be suffered to be armed at any time."

CASCARETS CURE A BILIOUS HEADACHE

Gently But Thoroughly Cleanse Your Liver, Stomach and Bowels and
You Feel Great by Morning

You're bilious, you have a throbb-ing sensation in your head, a bad taste in your mouth, your eyes burn,
your skin is yellow, with dark rings
under your eyes; your lips are parched. No wonder you feel ugly, mean and ill tempered. Your system is full of bile not properly passed off, and what you need is a cleaning up inside. Don't continue being a bilious nuisance to yourself and those who love you, and don't resort to harsh physics that irritate and injure. Demonstrate that every disorder of the stomach, liver and intestines can be quickly cured by morning with gentle, thorough Cascarets—they work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you and the entire family feeling good for months.
Children love to take Cascarets, because they taste good and never gripe
or sicken.

AMUSEMENTS

"Alma Where Do You Live?"
Theatregoers in general will be pleased to learn that Messrs. Elm & Wyatt of the Grand Opera House are to present "Alma Where Do You Live?" one of the cleverest of French farce dramas of the season, at the Grand Opera House Feb. 15, under the management of Joe Weber.

"Alma" is a farce originally done
in Paris, then turned into a German version of the Berlin audiences and then brought to the German Theatre in New York City. Here it proved the sensation of two seasons. But this was on account of the wonderfully catchy music of Jean Briquet who wrote the musical score. All went to hear it. Then it became known that there was much in the book to cause criticism. This was so much so that the attention of Mayor
Gaynor of New York was called to it.
Mayor Gaynor, however, gave the play the benefit of a doubt and the play continued until Joe Weber who has been responsible for more humer-ous successes than perhaps any other theatrical manager, secured the American rights to the farce and had it rendered into a book with which even the most captious could not find fault.

The first thing that Mr. Weber did was to order all of the original numbers of Jean Briquet returned to the score. There is naught but purity in music and this action helped the final result. The play ran a whole season at his theatre
and that without the slightest objection on the part of anyone. The original and catchy songs, the positive charm of the music, all have been retained. And the book is as dainty as the music. Seats are now on sale for "Alma" at Rowley's Drug Store.

Tuesday Evening at the Temple
Many requests for tickets have been made for the Raul Pereira Grand Concert to be given at the Temple
Theatre tomorrow night (Tuesday), Feb. 13th, and everything indicates to a big house that will greet this noted violinist and his own orchestra of great ability. Read what the press says of them:

San Francisco Chronicle, Jan. 7, 1912: "The most pretentious act on the bill is that of Raul Pereira and his orchestra of six additional strings,
a piano and an organ. They made wonderfully sweet music that silenced
the audience so that a pin might have been heard to drop. It is an unusual vaudeville act and a splendidly good one."

This high class organization will be heard in one grand concert, first number at 8:15, Balcony 25c, entire lower floor reserved at 35c. Seat
sale at Hatzfeld & Parsons Drug Store.

SOUTHERN COUNTIES GAS COMPANY HAS BAIN AT ITS HEAD

Los Angeles Times: F. R. Bain,
a New York capitalist, was elected president of the Southern Counties
Gas Company of California yesterday.
His election was the termination of a hard fight by one of the promoters of the smaller company that had been absorbed, to secure control, and who,
for a time held the presidency.

Bain now holds a controlling ownership of the stock, and officers, who were elected with him are F. N.
Hawes, treasurer, and W. S. McFarland, secretary and auditor. The company has recently purchased three of the plants of the Edison Gas and Electric Company in small surrounding cities and has just completed 300 miles of high pressure main, which, from four plants, furnishes fourteen of the towns and cities of Los Angeles and Orange County with gas.

The report of the secretary showed a capitalization of $1,500,000 with one of the smallest bonded indebtedness
for a company of its size in the country, only $540,000. The directors who were elected include F. R. Bain, G.
M. Bain, C. H. Ainley, president of the American Bank of Monrovia; W.
F. Boardman, of Boardman and Co.,
San Francisco; O. B. Hinsdale, a retired banker of Monrovia; F. N.
Hawes, of the American Bank; L. E.
Miller, a capitalist of Anaheim; J. Allen Osmun, president of the First National Bank of Whittier, and Roy B.
Wheeler, of the J. H. Adams Company of this city.

CONDUCTORS ARE REWARDED FOR THEIR COURTESIES

LONG BEACH, Feb. 12.—
Mrs. L. H. Robertson, an old lady of Newport Beach, came down from Los Angeles last night on a Long Beach car
and failing to hear the conduc-tor's cry of change at Willows,
was brought into Long Beach.
She had no acquaintances here
and no money, so Conductors J.
E. Slancher and O. D. Lee clipped in and secured lodgings for Mrs. Robertson at a local hotel. This morning Mr.
Robertson came to Long Beach
in response to a telephone call from his wife and after reimbursing the conductors handed each of them a $10 gold piece
for their courtesy and chivalry

BOTH HUSBAND AND WIFE CLOSE TO DEATH

Bolsa Correspondence in Anaheim
Plain Dealer: A sad and tragic situation is that of a well known and esteemed couple of this vicinity, one of whom hovers between life and death at the family home here, while the other is at the home of her mother at Norwalk and no less distant from death's door. Neither is aware of the seriousness of the plight of the other, nor able to bear
the shock that would attend giving of the information.

They are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Woodin. His condition is due to a horse stepping upon him last Saturday night, while that of Mrs. Woodin is the outcome of a recent serious illness following the birth of a son.
Mr. Woodin was hurt while leading a horse into the barn at his ranch.
He had watered the animal and was taking it back to its stall when it stumbled and pitched forward. As it did so it knocked him down. In scrambling back to its feet, the horse placed a front foot on the stomach of the prostrate man and its weight came down with crushing force. Internal injuries sustained are now threatening his life and the attending physicians hold out but little hope.

The day following his accident,
the news arrived from Norwalk of the critical condition of Mrs. Woodin, who had been thought up to that time to be making rapid recovery.
Information since received is that the physicians attending her hold little or no hope for her recovery. Both Mr. and Mrs. Woodin are widely known throughout the lower country and are held in much esteem by many friends, who will be greatly dressed to learn of their present circumstances.

PELL MELL RUSH NOW ON FOR TRIPLE VOTES

Only Five More Days Left for Candidates to See Their Friends and Get Their Subscriptions Before the Big Triple Vote Offer Closes—Another Candidate Enters Roll of Honor Ranks.

The big vote days are rapidly being enveloped in the past. Just five more days of big votes.

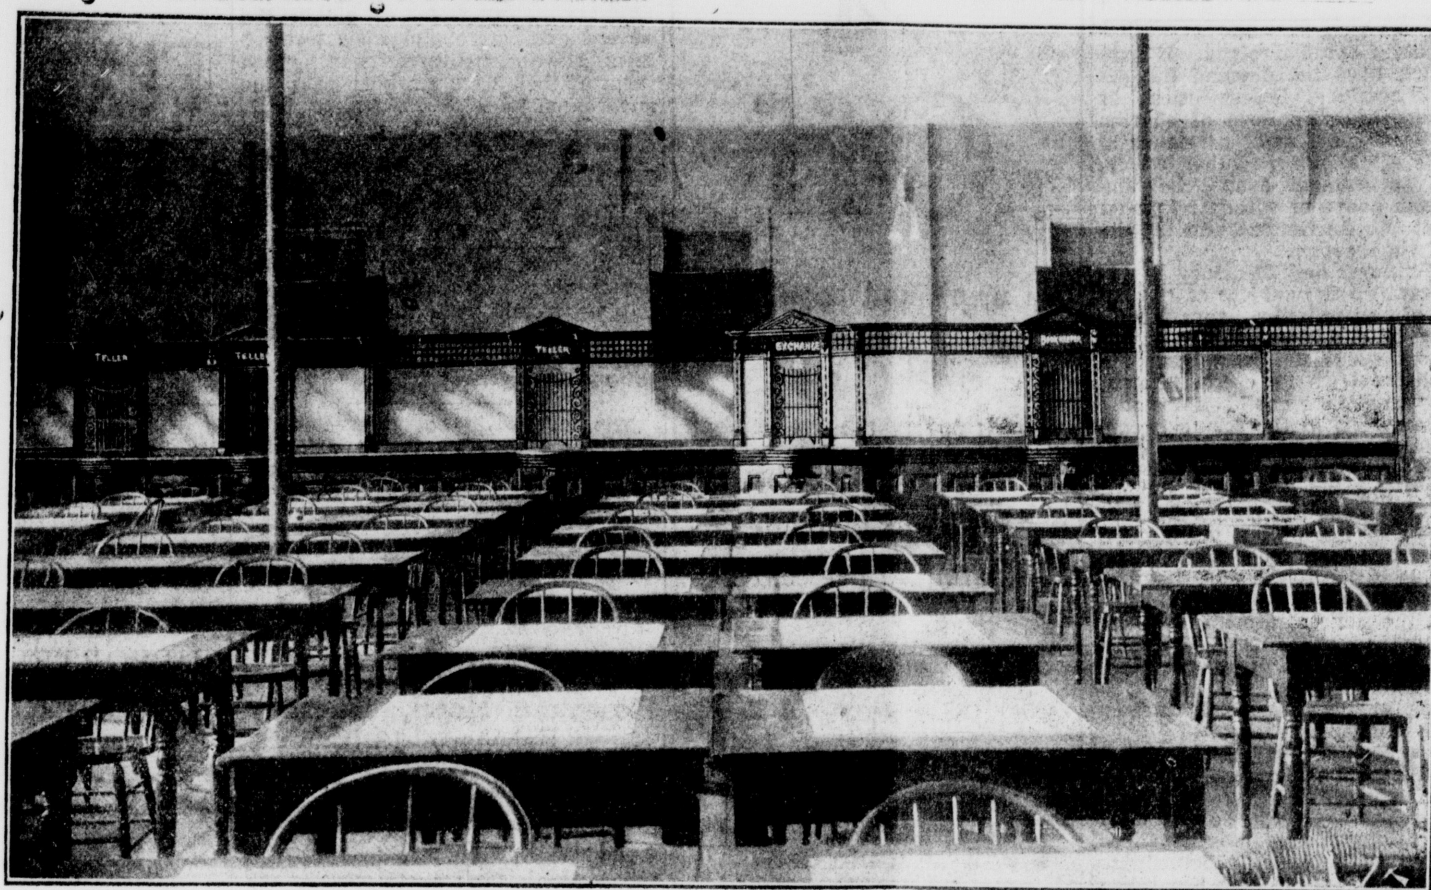

Then vote values will drop heavily and they will keep dropping heavily until the end of the contest. Now you are after votes—that's what you have to give us in exchange for the big E.M.F. Touring Car or one of the other valuable prizes offered by the Register. When you bring in a subscription to the contest editor he gives you votes for it—and you certainly want the greatest number of votes for that subscription that you can get. Now if you bring in a new one, two or five-year subscription to the Daily Register before next Saturday night, February 17, you will be given more votes for one of these subscriptions than will ever be given again during the contest.

Go after this class of subscriptions during the next five days. Make a specialty of getting new yearly subscriptions between now and next Saturday night and see what a pile of votes you will have. It's a question of the number of votes you have at the end of this contest and not of subscriptions.

And keep in mind that this is positively the best offer that you will get. Just watch the big drop that votes will take after next Saturday night.

This is all being printed as a forewarning to all those who feel inclined to "lay off" a few days. You'll have plenty of time to "lay off" after next Saturday night without doing so much injury to yourself. If you have piled up a fair vote already, don't for a minute imagine that you can afford to sleep while your competitors are piling up votes during this offer and for city's sake don't let anybody tell you that a better offer will come up before this contest ends.

The contest editor will not deceive you. When he makes a statement through the columns of this paper that this offer will be the best from now until the end of the contest he means it and will see that every candidate in the race gets an automobile if he fails to make good his promises.

Assembly Room and Business Banking Offices of the Orange County Business College—Two Scholarships in this institution, of the value of $65.00 each, to be awarded in the Register's Contest.

the E. M. F. 30 Touring Car is easy to solve. The busiest candidate will come pretty near reaping the reward. Let the next five days be the busiest days you will have during the entire contest.

Mrs. N. E. Todd is still holding claim to the leading position in the ROLL OF HONOR and has a majority

Santa Ana School Boys Keen for Athletic Meet

A representative of the Los Angeles Times has been in Santa Ana lining up interest in the Times grammar school athletic meets. The result of his visit appears in the Times as follows:

The grammar-schoolboys of Santa Ana have taken hold of the Times Camp track and field meet plan with an abundance of red-blooded pride and enthusiasm.

The district meet of the Times Camp series, which will be held in Santa Ana on April 29, promises to be one of the greatest athletic events witnessed in Orange County. Teachers and pupils alike are planning for the big day and, with the attractive array of youthful stars, the meet should be a great day for schoolboy sports as well as a day long to be remembered by the boys.

Among the schools of Southern California visited by the Times Camp representative, none have shown a greater interest in all forms of sport and the Times meets in particular, than those of the Orange County seat. Santa Ana has always been known as a live wire in the field of athletics and from the way the grammar school boys are coming to the front in all forms of muscle schooling, there is a long string of victories ahead of them.

A Banner Event
In the Santa Ana meet, the schools of Orange, Tustin, Artesia, Garden Grove and all the surrounding country, will join, with the one aim of making this the banner event of Orange County athletic history. The fact that the Times plan calls for numbers, has not been overlooked by the teachers and the boys are turning out in great numbers for the purpose of making a good showing for their respective schools.

Among the Santa Ana schools, the Jefferson boys are as well schooled in athletic matters as any. They play a good game of baseball and have a number of hustling fellows, who will keep the school track team up to the minute. The assistance of several of the High School track men will also aid in the development of these Jefferson school lads.

Among the most promising athletes and the best boosters of the Jefferson school, the following names appear: Burton Chittenden, Roy Cridle, Chester Clark, Robert Squire, Martin Petts and Tom Trytholl.

These boys will be the ones who will make the strongest bids for honors in their district meet. They will not be alone, however, as there will be a large delegation from the lower grades entered from each of the Santa Ana schools. The more entered in the meets, the more glory for the winners.

A Great Factor

McKinley school is a great factor in the schoolboy athletic activity of the city. At this school the boys are all athletes from the first grade up. The girls are also athletically inclined and have a basketball team as good as the best.

The pride of his school is Robert Brown of McKinley. A ball player of exceptional ability, able to play football with any of his age, a gifted runner and a shark with the shot, this Brown personage stands a fair chance to make all the boy records in the Times meets go "smash."

Robert is not alone, though, in the first rank of McKinley school glory. He is closely followed by a likely looking bunch who line up in the following order: Victor Burrell, Homer Edwards, Hubert Bunker, Cyril Reed, William Johnson, Dexter Moore, Dyke Thorpe, Clarence Strong, Lynne Burrell, Ernest Bisset and Benas Fippe.

In Lincoln School
Lincoln school will also have a large team entered for honors in the big Times meet. The boys of this school are all enthusiastic over sports and are good athletes. In the races they will not be far behind the other schools when it comes to crossing the tape.

The fourth school visited by the Times Camp representative was the Roosevelt school, where all the boys are interested in anything that will build up their bodies. A dandy ball game was on when the visitor from the Times offices appeared on the grounds, but base ball had lost its color when the boys heard of the Times Camp track meets which are being held all over Southern California and Arizona.

The Roosevelt brigade was larger than that of any of the other schools and it is safe to say that there will be fully one hundred and fifty boys from this school enter in the events of the district meet. Little boys and big boys came to the front and asked questions, talked athletics and the Times Camp till the representative had to leave for Los Angeles.

Among the boys of the Roosevelt school who will be seen in the big Santa Ana meet, the following names appear: William White, James Vance, Nelson Edgar, Karlton Scott, Robert Armstrong, Neal Mitchell, Charles Clarke, Howard Marple, George Carey, Edward Covington, Paul Glover, Charlton Walters, Harold Bartlett, Howard Carnahan, Drenan Kauch, Malcolm Finley, Julius Finley, Taylor Vanderbilt, Julius Nasatir, Victor Eckles, Carol Coldburn and Walter Dilling.

SKETCH OF THE MANAGER OF CITRUS PROTECTIVE LEAGUE

(Frances A. Groff in American Magazine.)

As children we were taught to be kind to the dumb animals; and now comes a man, G. Harold Powell by name, and tells those who have dealings with fruit that they must be careful of the apple, courteous to the peach, and considerate of the orange. He points out that a fruit is a living organism with an allotted span of existence; and that harsh handling opens the way to disease, shortens its life and renders it valueless as food.

Mr. Powell is one of those enviable beings whose work follows the line of their inclination, and who always has a tendency to make them efficient, honest and happy. He comes from wholesome Quaker ancestry and sound pomological stock. George T. Powell, his father, is president of the Agricultural Experts Association, and Lecturer on Agriculture at Columbia, where he gives a special course to those city folk who own country places.

It was on his father's model farm at Glens, New York, that young Powell was brought up to use his little hatchet for pruning, only, and to call each prize apple pleasantly by its Latin name. His reward came at Cornell, where he was given charge of the horticultural grounds and investigations during the summer months of his student years. As soon as he had taken his master's degree, which was in 1896, he was needed as horticulturist at the Delaware Experimenting Station, and after five years of notable work was called to serve a government which could no longer do without him in its Bureau of Plant Industry.

Mr. Powell's first government detail was an investigation of the keeping qualities of fruit in cold storage and he has worked largely along that line ever since.

Two general conclusions have been reached by Mr. Powell and his associates. Air is cooled over coils of pipe containing gaseous ammonia and forced by fans through cold-air ducts into preceding rooms in a packing house, or in the case of the railroad plants, into fruit-filled cars upon the track. By this process it is possible in as little time as four hours to reduce fruit from a temperature of 100 degrees to 45 degrees.

It hardly seems fair even to endeavor to summarize in a paragraph or two the careful, patient, scientific work of years. Mr. Powell's learned and lucid expositions of pomological matters cover a wide range of investigation from the top-working of orchard trees to the lemon industry in Italy, and are obtainable free from the Department of Agriculture. His work has been of incalculable value; the one feature alone of fixing the responsibility of decay of fruit in transit has brought about better relations between transportation companies and shippers, revolutionized methods of handling, and, as said above, saved millions of dollars annually.

Two years ago Mr. Powell went as government representative to the First International Congress of Refrigerating Industries, at Paris; and last year, in the absence of Chief Galloway in Asia, was acting chief of the Bureau of Plant Industry with its force of fifteen hundred people.

So profoundly were the orange and lemon growers of California impressed with Mr. Powell's investigations in their field that they offered him a large salary to go to Los Angeles as secretary and manager of the Citrus Protective League, which represents 90 per cent of the California growers and concerns itself with public policy questions such as tariff, transportation and methods of handling, leaving distribution and marketing to the local co-operative exchanges. The Department of Agriculture insisted upon Mr. Powell's retaining connection with the Bureau of Plant Industry as collaborator and consulting pomologist.

Mr. Powell commenced his new work in January, 1910, and took his wife, who was a classmate at Cornell, and their three young pomologists, to the land of the orange. He confesses that his change of base was partially influenced by the fact that while he was studying the blue mold spores which attack the orange, he himself became inoculated with a germ which frequently attacks human beings—the California bacillus.

JAPANESE EXCLUSION

Anything bearing upon Japanese immigration is of especial interest in Orange county, where the Japanese population is proportionately quite large, and therefore an important industrial and social factor.

Necessity of co-ordinate action by the executive and legislative departments of government in all steps taken to define who shall be admitted to residence in the United States is disclosed by the effect of absence of such an understanding prior to the Dillingham bill. As reported to the senate by the committee on immigration, this measure excluded, together with various incompetents and objectionable classes of persons, citizens of a nation—Japan—with which the United States has only recently come to terms on this important detail of mutual relations, and a nation that is extremely sensitive to any disparagement of her subjects. Like the Chinese, the Japanese born within the United States may not become citizens of the republic. That is a detail of American home rule that Japan does not question. She is like-minded as to her own affairs and for the same reason. She has gone so far as to accommodate her internal administration in order that no large number of the laboring class can leave Japan for the United States. She would much rather have her surplus population go to Manchuria or Formosa. But she is not in a mood to have her subjects discriminated against as Asiatics or classified as are the Chinese seeking a chance to labor in the United States.

"If the inclusion of the Japanese under the terms of Section 3 of the Dillingham bill as originally reported was an intentional pin prick," says the Christian Science Monitor, "it was exceedingly ill-timed and far from creditable to persons responsible for it; and if the inclusion was an oversight, owing to careless drafting of the bill, it was not creditable to the committee. The bill has now been withdrawn for amendment in this and other particulars, and the state department no doubt is busy assuring Tokio that there was no intentional reflection upon Japan. Carelessness in lawmaking, it seems, carries a little credit as it does in industry or finance."

JOHNSON LOOMING LARGE

It will be remembered that in the Register's straw vote for president Governor Johnson was the first choice of several voters. Doubtless he was and is the first choice of many more voters in Orange county than the few votes cast for him would indicate, because it is pretty generally known that he is not seriously considered at this time as a possible candidate.

But Governor Johnson is taking prominent place in the councils of the progressives in the east just now and the reputation which California's reform governor has established is such that he is being talked of for president. The Washington Times, in a recent editorial discussion of presidential possibilities, suggests Johnson, Cummins, Hughes and Beveridge as "dark horses," and says:

"These four men are discussed in high political places as possible candidates."

"Both Johnson and Cummins are out-and-out La Follette supporters, but their names are evidently considered on the theory that a dead-lock may develop in the convention as a result of which neither Taft nor La Follette will be able to gather a sufficient number of votes to be nominated. Any one of the four mentioned would then be apt to be trotted out as a 'dark horse'."

"Johnson's remarkable personality together with his splendid record as a state executive, have combined to bring him into prominence as a national character. Under his leadership California today is far in the lead of any other state along progressive lines, and the national party leaders are beginning to appreciate the strength that a progressive candidate of the Johnson type would add to the Republican party's chances of victory in the approaching campaign."

Wouldn't Roosevelt and Johnson make a hummer of a ticket?

Good Charter for Small Cities

(By Clinton Rogers Woodruff, Secretary of the National Municipal League, in California Outlook)

The case for the commission form of government for the small city seems to be made out by the facts. To date 200 communities, ranging from 5000 to 138,000 in population, are operating under such a form, and the results thus far have been generally satisfactory. This is shown by the expression of the people living in these communities, by the published figures as to the finances and the general management of the cities and by the very fact that in no instance has a city which has operated under the commission form abandoned it. The cases of Harlingen, Texas, and Chelsea, Mass., are not in point. The Harlingen charter was declared to be illegal and unconstitutional because ten provisions of the Texas statutes had not been complied with. Chelsea had never adopted the commission form of government; it had one imposed on it by the state and when it came to a vote for a new charter it preferred another form.

The chief characteristics of the commission form of government are the concentration of the executive and legislative offices in one small body elected at large, subject, however to the recall. This body, or commission, runs the whole city government.

The Staunton Plan

In considering this remarkable movement, which has reached its present extent and publicity within ten years—the question arises, is it the last word in municipal government and does it solve all the problems of a city of moderate size? For one, I do not think it is the last word, although I do believe it represents a distinct step forward, in that it eliminates the complexities and intricacies of the old form of government and clears the way for a further advance by which the expert will come to the just recognition of his place in the administration of city affairs. All the signs of these developments have begun to appear. For instance, in Virginia, where the commission form of government is not possible under the existing statutes and laws, the city of Staunton, through its council and mayor, has appointed a general manager to whom the business of running the municipality has been committed. This is a clear and distinct recognition of the fact that the administration of municipal affairs is a matter for the expert, that is, for the man who has made it his business to know how to run municipal affairs. Another indication of the trend of thought is the suggestion of the Lockport plan, which in brief is the election of an unpaid commission of five at large. This commission in turn elects a general manager or superintendent who will administer the affairs of the city; or, to put it another way, the election of a policy-determining body of five who will select a policy-executing official who is an expert in his line. I believe a suggestion similar to this was made in Eureka, Cal., but through a misunderstanding of its significance did not receive the consideration it deserved.

Experts Are Required

This form more nearly approximates the foreign forms of city government than does the commission. In England, for instance, the council is a legislative body and discharges no actual administrative duties, although nominally it has entire charge of them. Its duty is confined to the selection of the proper experts to execute the policies which it outlines. The experts are appointed on the basis of merit and fitness, and they are continued in office during good behavior and continued ability to discharge their duties, irrespective of the partisan complexion of the council. Practically the same condition prevails in Germany, although the council there is a larger one than in the English cities.

Too much stress cannot be put upon the necessity for the selection and retention of experts to execute municipal policies. We might as well resolve now, once and for all, that the conduct of a city's business is a highly complicated matter requiring not merely the attention of the successful business man or men, but of those who have made city affairs their life work. The truly progressive city is one which recognizes this fact. When the people insist that experts shall be selected and retained, two-thirds of the problem will be solved; for, after all, we are living in a government where public opinion reigns. If public opinion does not demand the expert, but condones the selection of the incompetent, no form of charter will successfully and permanently meet the situation. In other words, efficient government cannot be imposed from above or without; it must represent the convictions and the desires of the people.

Economy and Efficiency

To return to the subject of the operation of commission government, speaking by and large, the form has been most successful in solving the financial problems of cities. Generally speaking, there has been not only an improvement in the financial conditions in those cities where the commission form of government prevails, but there has been a very general saving, or, to put the matter another way, the city has gotten much more for its money than under the old system. This is due to the fact that juggling of figures is made difficult through the concentration of responsibility in the hands of a few men who cannot successfully dodge that responsibility. There are those who maintain that the financial transactions of commission-governed cities have not been universally satisfactory, but I think that in the great majority of such cities the taxpayers have been satisfied with the results in this direction. Bonds have risen to par and above; floating indebtedness has been paid and surplus has taken its place.

Moreover the simplicity of this form of government and the publicity under which it is operated contribute to this end. The people have a chance to make their wishes directly felt and understood. Economies have been very general for the same reason, although I think that when we reach the stage of having a general manager and experts in charge, the economies will be greater. Of course we must not make the mistake of regarding economies as signs of efficiency. It is possible to have economy without efficiency, but under commission government there has been a large measure of both. In many places there has been a reduction in the tax rate. In still larger number there has been little or no reduction in the tax rate, but the city has not only gotten more for its expenditures but has kept within its budget limits and paid its expenses as it went.

Under the old system the tax rate was frequently kept at a low figure through borrowing from the next year's budget. This practice has very generally been eliminated under the commission form of government. In fact, all juggling has been made difficult through the provisions made for publicity. There has been a marked increase in the number of public improvements in commission-governed cities, more and better paved streets, more and better laid sewers, larger and better equipped public buildings, Houston, although only enjoying a modified form of commission government, has made very considerable advances along all of these lines, and in addition, has built a $300,000 auditorium, the finest in the South, out of the annual surplus. Moreover, the building was constructed within the original appropriation.

Social and Moral Results

The commission form of government has not of itself solved the social and moral problems of the community, but has made the control of these problems by the people easier of accomplishment. There were those in the early days of the commission government of Des Moines who maintained that the introduction of that form into Des Moines had resulted in the complete overthrow of the social evil. What was really accomplished was the destruction of the corrupt relations between the city government and the social evil, and its better control in the interests of decency and morality. This, I think, has been the general result, although there are some rather notable exceptions.

One of the most important achievements of the commission form has been the stimulation of interest on the part of the people, in other words, they have felt that they had some part and which was responsive to their wishes and desires. No form of government will take the place of the self-governing instinct, but certain forms of government make the expression of that instinct easier than others and the commission form of government is one of these.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—President Taft has notified President Gomez of Cuba that, unless a reign of militarism can be averted there, the American government will take charge of the island.

The National Board of Trade, representing organizations in all parts of the country, has been in session here. The Association encourages business men to interest themselves in primaries and in public questions. It endorsed one-cent letter postage.

A convention has been in session in the interest of federal aid to good roads.

In an address to the meat-packers, Senator Reed of Missouri condemned the Judge Gary plan of federal supervision of corporations as "Plutocratic Socialism."

Representative Henry of Texas has proposed a constitutional amendment making the last Thursday of April, instead of March 4, the date for inaugurating presidents and vice-presidents.

The charge that persons connected with the steel trust are endeavoring to advance his nomination for the presidency has been called by Col. Roosevelt "Tomfoolery."

The recommendation of Postmaster General Hitchcock that the government appraise, take over and operate the telegraph companies has produced much discussion. The New York World has suggested ironically that, for efficiency, it might be better for the telegraph companies to operate the postal department.

Charles S. Hornly, president of the New Castle, Ind., Industrial Association, has just given the Senate post-office committee an interesting recital of industrial development. He said that New Castle was a sleepy country village with a population of 3400 in 1900. It is now a thriving city having about twenty-five important, diversified industries and a population of something more than 15,000. Though houses have been rapidly built, last year an automobile company, employing two thousand hands in their plant, found it necessary to invest $150,000 to provide homes for their employees. The success of New Castle caused many other towns to follow its example.

Mr. Hornly's services have been asked by commercial clubs in nearly every state. Under his direction, Brazil, Evansville and other Indiana cities have succeeded in locating important industries.

Mr. Hornly said that one of the first things they did not do was to send for a lot of mail-order catalogues. Lack of public spirit, he said, would deaden any town. Local merchants had always been active in such development. Any system which disables them from helping in such movements, supporting their local newspapers and extending credit necessary in growing towns, will result in decreased home markets for farm products, labor, etc. Lands near a live town are worth more than lands near a dead town. Any rate which would enable the government to operate parcels post otherwise than at great loss would be so high as to make it impracticable for transporting farm products. Merchants and farmers prefer to sell goods and products through personal inspection. Where the farmer might save a few cents upon carriage of goods bought from some mail-order house, he would lose much more through deadening of the town and sending its resources to large mail-order centers.

The proposed carriage of parcels by the government for concerns a thousand miles distant at the same price as that charged for a few miles would weaken home ties and loyalty to community interests. It would build up large mail-order concerns to the depreciation of local values. Nearness to a good live town adds to contentment on the farm. Increase of great cities and consequent misery of many unemployed are largely due to dullness of many small towns. Great cities furnish gravest dangers. Carriage of first and second class mail at a cost regardless of distance might be justified by their diffusion of intelligence necessary for stability of a republic.

The present carriage of merchandise up to four pounds regardless of distance was only incidental; for samples, for information purposes, etc. This has been so abused that it might be more just to transport even merchandise under this limit at rates proportionate to distance.

The chief argument used to locate industries in the Central West has been that thereby the centers of population and markets. If the government should build much merchandise at rates regardless of distance, there would be little inducement for a factory to locate or establish a branch in the West or South. Factories would concentrate where labor and power are cheapest. The proposed system, he believed, was "protection to home industries" reversed to destruction of home industries.

"Parcels Post," he said, "is the entering wedge of government ownership and Socialism." It will necessitate large increase of force and equipment. Its chief advocates have introduced bills providing for government operation of transportation lines, including public highways, "at lowest possible rates regardless of distance." If the limit be increased to eleven pounds, why not 1100 pounds? It has been said that eleven pounds is the weight of a gallon of whiskey, jug and container.

Advocacy of government entrance into express-carrying business is naturally followed, he said, by Socialistic demand for its ownership and operation of telegraph lines, telephone, railroads, coal mines, etc. Individualism, initiative and self-reliance would disappear under such paternalism and bureaucracy. Government conduct of business is more costly and wasteful than private operation. Regulation, not operation should be had.

Many factories are moving out of the large cities to towns and smaller cities where living conditions produce improved types of citizenship, he argued, and parcels post would stop this movement of decentralization. It would blight the efforts of live industrial organizations for town development. For the government to place the products of factories well-established in old-settled communities into the markets of the Central West at the same price as charged to local industries, many of which are new and struggling for a foothold, would rebuke the pioneer spirit and punish local enterprise.

He did not believe this to be a true function of the United States government. Ours differ from those of the old world in its encouragement to liberty of thought and action, equal and exact justice to all. Local merchants, he said, should likewise be allowed to retain the advantages nature and their own efforts and expenditures had given them of their local markets. For the government to deprive them of these, he believed, would be class legislation. Agitation, which it was assumed came from the farmers, really came from retail mail-order houses. Though the voice might be that of Jacob, the hand was that of Esau. To be "progressive" toward Socialism is not real progress, he claimed; but we should seek the "old paths" and oppose further entrance by the federal government into fields of private enterprise.

CONSERVATORY MUSICALE

Music by Great Composers
Given by Mr. Gustlin's Pupils; Many Hearers

One of the most enjoyable and best attended recitals of the weekly series yet given by the Orange County Conservatory of Music was that of last Saturday afternoon in which a number of Mr. Gustlin's private pupils participated.

These recitals are held in Mr. Gustlin's large private studio and this was filled almost to overflowing with parents and friends of the students who manifested a keen appreciation of the beautiful program and the excellent features of the pupils' performance.

Compositions by the following, classic and modern, were played: Bach, Schumann, Chopin, Mendelssohn, Rubenstein, Paderewski, Mac Dowell, Liszt, Grieg, Dvorak and Chaminade.

Mr. Gustlin prefaced some of the numbers with brief descriptive suggestions which rendered them the more intelligible and enjoyable.

Miss Mary Wilkes, one of Mr. Gustlin's most promising voice pupils, added much to the charming program in her singing of three numbers, one in Spanish, another in German and the third in English. The clear, bell-like tone quality of her voice and the masterly control which she possesses are indeed rare in so young a singer.

At the Rice Home

An informal reception will be held tonight at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. S. Rice of Tustin, in honor of Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Wotton, and all friends of the Wottons, whether members or not of the Church of the Messiah, are very cordially invited to be present.

Entertained Old Friends

Yesterday, Mrs. E. J. Watkins, of Parton street, had the great pleasure of entertaining her sister, Mrs. Joseph Burnwood of Los Angeles, and a number of old friends. Mrs. Lenox and daughters, Mrs. Henry Gaynor and Miss Fannie Lenox, all of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Chambers, of Darlington, Indiana.

Valentine Party

Miss Wilhelmina Cavins entertained the J. O. C. class of the Congregational church Saturday afternoon with a valentine party. The cheerfulness of the Cavins home was enhanced by a profusion of glowing red, geraniums, and the refreshments served were appropriate to the valentine season.

The young ladies spent the afternoon dressing dolls for the Day Nursery, a prize being awarded for the one that was dressed the best.

IMPORTANT

We wish all those who are interested in a Y.M.C.A. for Santa Ana to note what we shall have to say tomorrow evening.

There is absolutely no more crying need in this city, we believe, than that for a Y.M.C.A. In fact, it is a deplorable reflection upon us that we have not had one long ago.

Let us wake up, get busy, and show people that we can build a fine one, even in a dry year. But let it be one that shall be entirely in keeping with all else that we have in this rare section, i. e., the best! 504½ N. Main St. Main 214.

"THE WHITE SISTER" MARVELOUS PLAY

Powerful Presentation of Play;
Miss Towler Marked Success at the Grand

"The White Sister" a dramatization of F. Marion Crawford's powerful novel whose scenes are laid in Italy, the land of romance and tragedy, was presented at the Grand Opera House last Saturday night by a capable company, with Miss Jeanne Towler as the star.

The play is one dealing with a woman's struggle between a mighty love for a brave Italian army officer and her spiritual duty as she sees it. Not only does Angela, the White Sister, struggle as a matter of duty against the impassioned, masterful and finally desperate pleadings of her lover, miraculously returned to her after five years' tragic absence and supposed death which had been the cause of her taking the vows of a nun, but she fights to save his honor and her own soul. Led by the rigid rules of her church to believe that it would be spiritual sacrifice and earthly disgrace to break her vows or seek release from them, she throws the whole might of her training and her sense of honor into the balance against the call of her passionate love for the man restored to her from death, and invokes that very love to save them both. The tragic end of the story, her lover dying by his own hand rather than see her exiled through his act to a living death on a lepers' isle, really restored him to her, according to her belief, for all eternity.

The intriguing, vindictive Countess Chiaromonte was ably presented by Miss Florence Boroughs, and Vernon Wallace as Lieut. Basil was eminently successful in lighting up the tragic atmosphere of the play. The subordinate parts were in good hands, and the stage effects were excellent, the different scenes being given in proper settings.

One of the most beautiful and powerful moments of the production was the climax of the first act when Angela, the White Sister, and Capt. Severi unexpectedly confront each other over the body of a wounded brother of Capt. Severi. The climax was thrilling and evoked an enthusiastic curtain call. Indeed the finale of each act was masterly both in situation and action.

HE HAS NOT LEARNED WHO ENTERED SCHOOL

While Principal Roberts has discovered the culprit in a theft, he has not, as reported, yet discovered who burglarized Jefferson School, and, of course, has made no attempt to settle the matter. Should he find who entered the building he would leave the matter to the justice's court and the board of education. Articles taken from the school and still missing are a new basketball, four baseballs and some money.

REPORTS LOSS BY ROBBERY

Joe Morales of Fullerton Says
He is Loser $360 by Reason of Theft Yesterday

FULLERTON, Feb. 12.—A robbery of $360 was reported to Marshal Stone here last evening. The money was stolen from Joe Morales of this city. Morales alleges that the money was taken from his home yesterday afternoon sometime, while he and his folks were visiting friends, and that when they returned home in the evening about 7:30, they noticed the money was gone.

On inquiring where his friend, Frank Elias, was he learned that he had not been seen since early in the afternoon. He was unable to find out at the depot at either Fullerton or Anaheim whether he had left or not. He is supposed, however, to have come to Los Angeles.

As yet there has not been a warrant issued for an arrest, but the matter has been turned in to the sheriff's office. City Marshal Stone is also working on the case.

About a week ago, Elias came to Fullerton and called upon the Morales family. He had formerly worked for the family and they thought a good deal of him. Naturally when he came to visit with them last week they were glad to see him. He had been in Utah and just returned.

Yesterday afternoon the family was invited to a party at a friend's home, and they thought nothing of leaving Elias at home. They did not know that he knew anything about the money. Upon their return, however, they noticed the money was gone, and also Elias. Naturally suspicion pointed to him.

The money was all in paper except $10 in currency.

Elias is 19 or 20 years of age, weighs about 140 or 150 pounds, height about 5 feet, 6 inches, dark complexion, wears a gray sweater with initials O. R.

Mr. Morales had just sold a house and lot in this city, and this was part of the money from that. With the rest of the money he had purchased another lot in Placentia and had expected to buy the lumber for a new house today with this money which was stolen.

MOST SEVERE COLD IS EASILY BROKEN

Surely Cures a Cold and Ends
Grippe Misery in a Few Hours

Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars, and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe.

It is a positive fact that a dose of Pape's Cold Compound, taken every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken, will end the Grippe and break up the most severe cold, either in the head, chest, back, stomach, limbs or any part of the body.

It promptly relieves the most miserable headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat, running of the nose, mucous catarrhal discharges, soreness, stiffness and rheumatic twinges.

Take this harmless Compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world, which will cure your cold or end Grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects, as a 25-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

FROM WINE TO POTTERY
Los Angeles Times, Magazine editorial: The pioneers of this country can nearly all recall the old Dreyfus winery at Anaheim, right alongside of the Southern Pacific tracks eastward of the Southern Pacific depot. The old winery has been out of commission for years, and now is to be converted to a new purpose. Representatives of the Los Angeles China Manufacturing Company are reported to be looking over it, with the intention of establishing their business in the old wine plant. The clay furnishing raw material is near at hand, and so is the oil for fuel. The project becomes a fact, it will employ 200 to 250 persons. There seems to be no room to doubt the feasibility of this, and it is one of the indices of what must take place here, in the immediate future. The whole Great Southwest is very scantily supplied with forests, consequently lumber for all purposes is dear and sure to be dearer. But if nature has denied us the wealth of the wood, it has furnished us with abundant material in our clays and rock piles. The earths of the Great Southwest are inexhaustible and of a variety suiting them for all purposes. The homes of all the people here must more and more become "of the earth earthy."

AWAITING NEW DRILL MASTER

Fullerton High School Militiamen are Getting Used to Their Guns

FULLERTON, Feb. 12.—The members of the militia company of the Fullerton Union High School are busy just now getting used to their guns which they received about two weeks ago from Sacramento. At present there are about fifty-two members in the company, a few having left school. As the national guard officer who has been drilling the company until lately has resigned, the drill work has not been as satisfactory as might be wished, but a new officer is soon to be appointed. Another feature of the company is the new target range which is soon to be established. This will undoubtedly attract a great deal of interest among the boys.

To Meet Downey

The Fullerton high school plays off its third game of the series of three with Downey high school next Saturday afternoon on the local grounds. The two teams have each won a game and so this game will be hotly contested.

Debate Friday

On Friday night, Feb. 23, the Fullerton debating team will debate with the Huntington Beach high school at Huntington Beach for the S. M. Davis cup. The subject of the debate is: "Resolved, That the state of California should control and develop all of the irrigation systems originating from surface supplies." Under the rules of the contest, the side for each school is not given until twenty-four hours before the debate.

TOUSSAU HAS SOLD 125 ACRES AT $1500

FULLERTON, Feb. 12.—A Toussau has announced that he has just sold his 125-acre tract about two and one-half miles north of Fullerton for $1000 an acre. It is understood that the entire tract goes to the Standard Oil Company.

Most of the land has been used as pasture and up to a few years ago was not worth over $25 or $30 an acre. There are some improvements on the property. This land is not far from some of the oil wells in the new fields brought in during the past year.

The Standard's new well in the city limits and about one and one-half miles north of the center of this city is now down over 2500 feet, is in blue shale and has good indications of an oil strike soon. As soon as it is brought in the undeveloped hills in the city will advance in price to thousands of dollars an acre—in fact most of it now is under lease for oil development.

ANAHEIM BOARD OF TRADE TO BANQUET THIS EVENING

ANAHEIM SOCIAL AFFAIRS IN LOS ANGELES TIMES

The most delightful social event in the history of the Ebel Club of this city took place Saturday afternoon when a 1 o'clock luncheon was served by the losing side in the membership contest. The decorations were carried out in the white and green colors, those being the colors of the two sides during the contest. After an hour of social intercourse at the table, Miss Hattie Spencer, president of the club, acting as toastmistress, gave an outline of the history of the Ebel Society of Anaheim, after which she introduced Mrs. A. J. Waters, state president of the Federation of Women's Clubs, who interested the members of the club by a charming talk on her work. Toasts serious, toasts dignified, toasts humorous and toasts witty were given. At the close of the dinner all repaired to the reception hall, where the state officers were met and new members made acquainted.

Tuesday, Feb. 13, will be a red letter day in the history of the Anaheim W. C. T. U. The union will be entertained at the country home of Mrs. D. Gervais on South Los Angeles street. The state vice-president, Mrs. Lucy Blanchard, will be in attendance and is to address the members. The meeting will also close the membership contest campaign. Musical selections will add to the afternoon's enjoyment.

Joseph Dauser celebrated his seventh birthday last Sunday and was the honored guest at a dinner party at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Baum, on North Los Angeles street. Aside from local relatives there were out of town guests from Los Angeles and included Ben Dauser and wife and daughter, and Mrs. A. Schumacher.

AT THE COURT HOUSE

COUNTY PLANS
ARE APPROVED

State Official Says Board Does
Right in Enlarging Jail
Capacity

County Clerk Williams has received a statement from W. A. Gates of the State Board of Charities and Corrections approving the plans of the Board of Supervisors for improving the county jail. Under the state law, plans for such work as that outlined must be approved before the work is undertaken.

Gates was here, and carefully examined the plans and approved them. It is proposed to put in a new floor and new set of steel cells above the floor now occupied by the felony cells, and to install a heating system.

Gates in his letter states that he finds that the improvements are necessary. All this winter the jail has been overcrowded. In fact at times it has had twice as many inmates as the normal capacity would allow. He found that owing to the crowded conditions, the jailer had allowed the men charged with felonies to have the freedom of the corridors. He advised that felony prisoners should never be allowed outside the steel cells, and to make that possible the additional cells called for by the plans of the Board of Supervisors are necessary.

Wants a Report

D. A. Moulton, deputy state controller, has written a letter to the Board of Supervisors asking that it direct the county surveyor to determine the number of acres lying inside the national forest in this county. The state has received $53,716.87 from the national forest department, being twenty-five per cent of the receipts of the forests in this state. This fund is to be divided among the counties of the state according to the acreage in national forests. In comparison to the remainder of the state, Orange county has but a small area. The money will go to school purposes.

Demands a Change

Notice of motion for change of venue has been given to Attorneys Weisel & Dutton of Anaheim in the suit brought by Emma M. Hill against Arthur Peffer. The defendant is a resident of Ventura county and wants the case tried there. HIGH SCHOOL
WON ON TRACK

Santa Ana Team Defeated
Long Beach Last Saturday
by 79 to 52 Score

Twice this year have the Santa Ana High athletic warriors gone on the war path against the Long Beachers, and twice returned with a fresh scalp dangling from their belts. Last fall the football team hung up a fresh one and last Saturday the track warriors sent their figurative enemies to a figurative happy hunting ground, to a score of 79 to 52.

So far as time in the track events and "records" of the field events were concerned, the meet was not a "whirlwind," but from Santa Ana's point of view the case with which her boys ran away with the points and rolled up a large score and the element of surprise in it, was a howling success.

The big crowd of Long Beach rooters that lined the bleachers had little chance to show what they could do in the line of rooting, as little was left for them but to take defeat as "good losers," which they did. The Santa Ana boys are loud in their praise of Long Beach High sportsmanship.

The meet opened with Long Beach taking first in the "50," while Youngman and Ec Lacy took second and third. Barker and Youngman took first and second in the ball throw. Bates and Atkinson finished second and third in the mile, while Dodd of Long Beach, who won the state championship in that event last year, did not even place. Barker and Youngman took first and third in the discus and that added six more points to the collection. West tied with a Long Beacher for first in the 120 hurdles and Schenck took third. "Shorty" Smith led the field in the "440," while Barker, Ec Lacy and "Shorty" grabbed all three places in the shot-put. "Chilly" Swanner took first in the pole vault and Foutz tied for second.

The best Santa Ana could do in the "100" was a third by Ec Lacy, but in the broad jump second and third came her way by Youngman and Ec Lacy, the "Texan" losing first by only a quarter of an inch. Foutz and Wilcox landed second and third places in the 220 hurdles, and Youngman first in the 220 yard dash. Bates and West second and third in the 880, while all three places in the high jump went to Santa Ana. McPhee, Sam Lacy and "Shorty" Smith tying for first place at 5.6. This record could easily have been raised to 5.8 had it been necessary to win.

The relay was a beauty. One of the prettiest races of the day was the first 220 of this race, when Robinson distanced his man by 50 feet. Ec Lacy and Smith increased this lead slightly, giving Youngman a big handicap for the last lap, which he won easily.

Next Saturday the team goes to San Diego. Last Saturday Long Beach beat San Diego 65 to 56, but as San Diego is strong in some events as Santa Ana, the result isn't at all "doped" by the comparative scores.

THINKS THEY STOLE BIKES

Constable Jackson has two Mexicans in jail on suspicion that they are bicycle thieves. One of them arrested Saturday night gives the name of Gonzales Ramirez. He was trying to sell a bicycle when Jackson arrested him. The man declared he had not stolen the bicycle in Anaheim, in fact had never been in Anaheim. In his pocket were letters addressed to Anaheim.

The second Mexican is Felicio Martinez. He had two or three bicycles on East Chestnut trying to sell them. Jackson believes the bicycles were stolen. The man has a camp near Red Hill.

Jackson has a light colored wheel with wide handle-bars. This bicycle was left at a barn near the corner of Grand and First streets three weeks ago, and Jackson thinks it was stolen.

AN ELECTION
ON TOMORROW

The members of the Walnut Growers Association have received notice of the annual meeting of stockholders to be held on Tuesday, Feb. 13th, at 2 o'clock at the City Hall. Five directors are to be elected. The printed ballot sent out by the secretary has the following names for nominees: J. H. Burke, John Boose, O. H. Gruenewald, W. A. Huff, Wm. Hencke, A. J. McFadden, L. L. Marchant, N. Nison, A. H. Stutsman, John Sauters, A. Williams and A. C. Tiede. Other names may be written in. Mr. John Lubbon, who has been president of the board of directors for several years, having sold out his walnut orchard, will not be a candidate.

The growers will no doubt show their interest in the walnut situation by a large attendance. The secretary requests those who can not attend to send their proxies in order to elect the board of directors and to transact business with a quorum present.

In spite of the difficulties the Walnut Growers' Association have met with this year, or perhaps it should rather be said, because of these difficulties, as many as 35 to 40 outsiders have joined the association within the last month or two. No doubt they realize that every pound of walnuts sold outside increases the difficulties of the association to obtain the price fixed on walnuts, and they are ready to help along the good work.

ISA LSO A NATURAL
CALIFORNIA MONOPOLY

Los Angeles Times Magazine: Huntington Beach is far from being one of the most noted places on the shores of the western sea in the way of population and industries, but lacking nothing in possibilities and again nothing in the fertility of the soil in its back country.

With these facts in one's mind, it is not astonishing to learn that the Celery Growers' Association at that point had upon a recent day mailed checks aggregating $120,000 to celery growers in that neighborhood to pay for this vegetable handled by the association in the month of December. While the month's business made a new record at that point, it is expected that the January payments will equal or even surpass those of December. Celery, one of the most delicious and also most wholesome of all vegetable products used for food, is for the broad market of the whole country a natural California monopoly. Winter is the time of year for the consumption of celery on a liberal scale, and the mild climate of this state makes it possible to grow the plant so as to have it come to maturity during the actual winter season. Celery is picked and carried directly from the fields to the shipping point, there loaded in cars and sent all over America, where it brings excellent prices. In this again the approaching opening of the Panama Canal points with an unerring index finger to all Western Europe as a market for California celery.
